Privacy Policy

Last update: 20.01.2022

Blobs (‘we’ or ‘us’ or ‘our’) respects the privacy of our users (‘user’ or ‘you’). This Privacy Policy explains how we collect, use disclose, and safeguard your information when you visit our mobile application (the ‘App’). Please read this privacy policy, please do not access the app.

We reserve the right to make changes to the current Privacy Policy at any time and for any reason. You can find out about any changes in the current Privacy Policy based on the date the document was updated. You should read this privacy policy from time to time to keep up to date with the latest changes.

You will be deemed to have been made aware of, will be subject to, and will be deemed to have accepted the changes in any revised Privacy Policy by your continued use of the App after the date such revised Privacy Policy is posted.

This Privacy Policy does not apply to the third-party online/mobile store from which you install the App or make payments, including any in-game virtual items, which may also collect and use data about you. We are not responsible for any of the data collected by any such third party.

How we collect and use User data

To develop our product and improve your experiences we may collect information about you in a variety of ways. What we might use collected information about you via App to:

- Create personalized experience and features;
- Observe usage patterns and use cases to improve your experience with the App;
- Notify you about new features and upcoming updates;
- Contact you about product, request feedback and participation in surveys to improve the App;
- Periodically send promotional push notifications of other our products, special offers and other information which you may find interesting.

Derivative Data and Uploaded Media

The information our servers automatically collect when you access the App, such as your native actions that are integral to the App, actions taken when creating entries, editing entries, and uploading media to the App. As such, we may also request access to your device’s photo roll or camera in order for us to upload your media to the App. Any media uploaded in this fashion, will be collected and stored on our servers. If you wish to change our access or permissions, you may do so in your device’s settings.

Mobile Device Access

We may request access or permission to certain features from your mobile device, including your mobile device’s reminders, camera and other features. If you wish to change our access or permissions, you may do so in your device’s settings.

Mobile Device Data

Device information such as your mobile device ID number, model, and manufacturer, version of your operating system, phone number, country, location, and any other data you choose to provide.

Push Notifications

We may request to send you push messages regarding your account or the App. If you wish to reject receiving these types of messages, you may turn them off in your device’s settings.

Data From Contests, Giveaways, and Surveys
Personal and other information you may provide when entering contests or giveaways and/or responding to surveys.

If any new purposes for processing your personal data arise we will let you know we start to process the information for that other purpose by introducing the corresponding changes to this Privacy policy.

Cross-app advertising

We collect data of installed apps on your device to deliver tailored ads, content or offers, and do not show ads that are considered irrelevant or no longer relevant. We deliver advertising through mobile applications based on data associated with user's mobile device and personal interests. We also take into account applications usage and general location inferred from IP addresses.

How you can exercise your rights

You have the rights:
- to access / review / update / correct your personal data. You may request a copy of, as well as updating and correcting your personal data collected during your use of the Service at Blobs.Tracker@gmail.com
- to request deleting your personal data. You can request the erasure of your personal data by sending us an email at Blobs.Tracker@gmail.com
- When you request deletion of your personal data, we will use reasonable efforts to honor your request. In some cases we may be legally required to keep some of the data for a certain time; in such event, we will fulfill your request after we have complied with our obligations.
